Accordingly, the Board of Directors of JD Cables Limited (“the Company”) at its meeting held on 11th June, 2025, approved and adopted the policy and this Policy covers all the important aspects of the Act and rules framed thereunder. However, for any clarification, the respective provisions of the Act and rules shall prevail over this Policy.

The Company is also committed to promoting a work environment that is conducive to the professional growth of every employee and encourages equality of opportunity. 4. Definition of Sexual Harassment –

According to the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013, Sexual Harassment includes any one or more of the following unwelcome acts or behaviour (whether directly or by implication), namely: -

- physical contact and advances; or
- a demand or request for sexual favour; or
- making sexually coloured remarks; or
- showing pornography; or
- any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature;

The Sexual harassment is “an unacceptable conduct of a sexual nature, or other conduct based on sex abuse affecting the dignity of men or women at work”. Sexual harassment will generally be unwanted, unreasonable or offensive or it may be a combination of all three. It may cause the employee who is being harassed to feel threatened or humiliated. It may interfere with the employee’s job performance, undermine job security or create a threatening or intimidating working environment. Although the word “harassment” has connotations of repeated conduct, an employee can be harassed by a single act. Sexual harassment can consist of several different types of behavior, some of which are more obvious than others. This list is not exhaustive, for example

- Sexual harassment can take the form of gestures or leering,
- Sending letters,
- Gifts or offensive publications or the use of pin-ups.

- Unwanted jokes, gestures, offensive words on clothing, and unwelcome comments and repartee.
- Touching and any other bodily contact such as scratching or patting a coworker's back, grabbing an employee around the waist, or interfering with an employee's ability to move.
- Repeated requests for dates that are turned down or unwanted flirting.
- Transmitting or posting emails or pictures of a sexual or other harassment-related nature.
- Displaying sexually suggestive objects, pictures, or posters.
- Playing sexually suggestive music.

Alternatively, sexual harassment may consist of spoken comments, including unwanted propositions, jokes of a sexual nature, questions or comments of a sexual nature or the suggestion that an employee's career can be advanced by bestowing sexual favors (or alternatively that an employee's career will be damaged if they do not accede to sexual requests). A third sort of sexual harassment involves physical contact including "accidental" contact, or deliberate patting, fondling or groping.
